Eret's Past

Hello me again. Aren't I getting annoying a little, oh well. I thought of this story because we don't really get to see a lot of Eret's past and how he is with Hiccup. So why not add Hiccup's tragedy with the discovering of Eret's past. Will friendship become? Read to find out.

Author's POV*

Hiccup had been seeing into the ocean the whole afternoon, not wanting to be bothered by anyone. Even Toothless. Astrid and Valka had come time to time, but Hiccup would just tell them to leave. Hiccup then sensed someone coming near him and said "Astrid, I told you I want to be alone"

"Do I look like a girl, kid" he hears a manly voice.

He turns around and sees Eret. "Eret not to be rude but can you go away, that's why I came to this part of village to be ALONE" Hiccup insisted.

Instead of leaving Eret just sat a few feet away from Hiccup also looking into the ocean. "I also remember when I lost my father."he says.

"What" asks Hiccup a bit confused.

"It was my first voyage, about 10 years ago, at sea with the family: my mom, dad, and my two sisters and three brothers. We were having a great time until it happened" Eret continues.

"What happened" Hiccup says worried as he comes closer to Eret.

"A Scouldren attacked our boat. It was all in a flash. One moment we were all on the boat happily. Then another, my whole family was gone and I was left floating on a piece of drift wood." He says as he starts to tear up a bit.

"Well I'm sorry Eret, I didn't now you had passed so much. I just , you know I don't know what to do I have so much on my mind. Now I'm in charge of the a whole village. My mom just came back. I'm suppose to marry Astrid in a month. It's just so much. I don't know what to do"

"It's okay, kid" Eret says as he pats his back "you will be like this for a while, it's just you know right now you have to be calm and not put to much stress on yourself. I suppose Astrid would understand, she is a very good woman Hiccup. You are very lucky. As for your mother don't forget she also lost someone so you also have to help her with her pain too. The villiage will understand, and if you need any help, you've got your gang and me, you'll be fine" He explains.

"Thanks Eret, for well everything right know. Just wondering, if there's no problem in me asking what happened after the Scouldren attacked"

"Well, I hit against the boat which was Drago's. He was about to kill me when I heard someone say they needed more dragons, so I told him that if didn't kill me I would trap dragons for him. And that's how I got into Dragon Trapping. Until you guys came and changed my mind,so that's been my life"

"Well Eret, you seem in luck today now that you no longer work for Drago youwill stay here with us and we the Berkians will be your family. Don't say no, because that is my first Chief decree. Anything else you need, just ask me your _Chief _Of Berk"

"Thanks man, and you seen to be feeling better"

As there talk ended little did Hiccup know that Astrid and Valka were behind a rock looking at both of them talk "See Astrid I told you he just needed a manly talk"Valka said

"Well it doesn't seem that manly since they are hugging" Astrid responds

"Well you know men their complicated"

"Well yeah"

"We should rather go before we get caught we'll thank Eret later"

"Ok"

So you like the story. Kind of a bummer, but is Eret's past must have been rough to end up working with Drago. Review, fav, and follow. Read you later. GOD BLESS YOU.
